How can I discover content through browse?

You can browse content by type: journals, books, case studies and Expert Briefings.

1. Select 'Browse our content' at the top of the page and choose your content type.

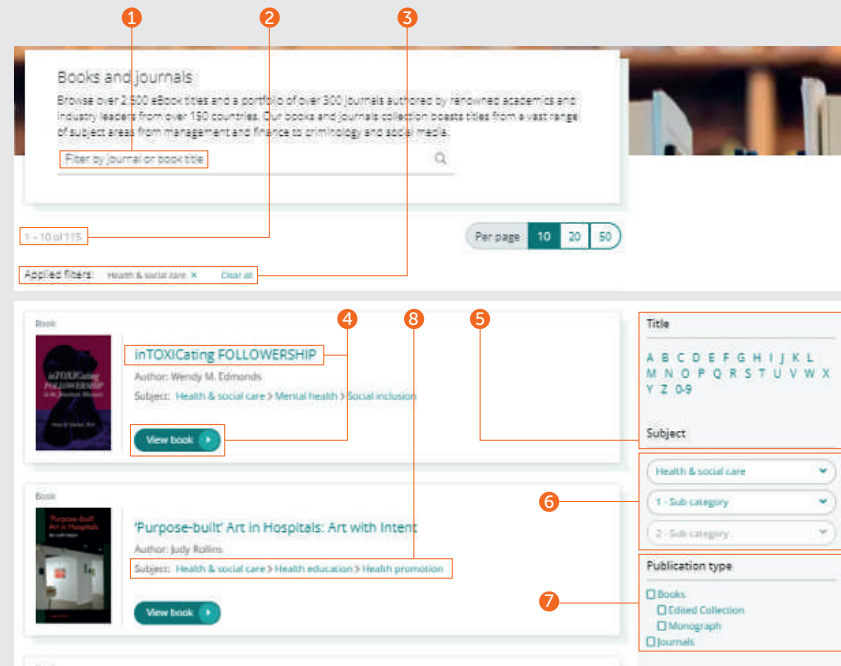

Browse journals and books

emerald.com/insight/browse/publications

The journal and book browse area combines all journals and book volumes. The page will automatically default to display all content in alphabetical order.

Journal and book browse - filter & search within

1. Search for journals and books by entering names of specific titles or words which may appear in the title name.
2. Quickly see the number of titles available to browse.
3. Applied filters can be cleared individually or select 'Clear all'.
4. Select the title name or button to view all content within each journal or book.
5. Refine content according to the name of the title using the A-Z filter.
6. Refine content by subject focus using the three-tier hierarchy of subject filters. The 'Subjects' drop down shows broad subject disciplines, and the 'Subcategories' cover specific fields within each subject.
7. Refine by publication type by selecting 'Journals' or 'Books'.
8. Subject categories are attached to each title and so filters can be selected here also.

1. Select 'View all case studies' to view all available case content in date order (newest first).

Welcome to Emerald case studies

Global teaching materials to engage and inspire

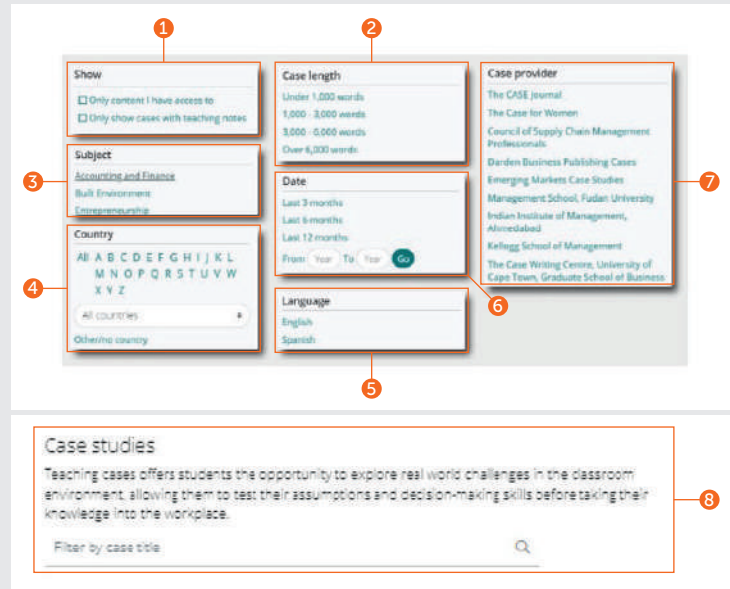

Teaching cases offer students the opportunity to explore real world challenges in the classroom environment, allowing them to test their assumptions and decision-making skills before taking their knowledge into the workplace. 100% of cases accepted by Emerald into Emerging Markets Case Studies (EMCS) or The CASE Journal (TCJ) have teaching notes, which are rigorously reviewed to ensure their learning objectives facilitate dynamic classroom discussion and help faculty plan how best to use the case.
